

Hector Tamayo

Tamayo returns for his 7th year with Vermont ODP. Tamayo has coached locally for a number of different teams at a variety of levels, including the Nordic Spirit Soccer Club for the past ten years, working with players ranging from U10 to U17. He has worked as a South Burlington High School coach for four seasons and just completed his first season as an assistant coach for St. Michael's College. Tamayo is an ODP Region I Staff Coach as well as a regionally-certified coach through the United States Soccer Federation (USSF).

Originally from Mexico City, Tamayo played at Saint Mary's University in San Antonio, helping the Rattlers go 10-2-3 in 1982 while winning the NAIA District 4 championship, before earning his associate's degree from Champlain College and his bachelor's degree from Johnson State College.
