

John Werner

Entering his eighth season as head coach of the men's soccer program, Werner piloted the Spartans to an undefeated North Atlantic Conference season in 2010, and earned his third NAC Coach of the Year award. He has led the Spartans to three North Atlantic Conference (NAC) Championships – 2004, 2007, 2008 – and three NCAA Division III Tournament berths.

Werner has coached three NAC Players of the Year, and produced multiple all-conference players. In addition to conference honors, Werner's teams have consistently produced members of the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) All-Region teams, as well as NSCAA Scholar-Athletes and NAC All-Academic recipients.

Along with all of those honors, Werner's clubs have earned two Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference (ECAC) New England Tournament bids and two NAC All-Sportsmanship awards.

Werner is the All-time winningest coach in Vermont high school history, earning a 346-108-31 mark in 31 seasons at Arlington Memorial High School.

Werner was named NFICA National Coach of the Year in 1995, NSCAA New England High School Coach of the Year four times, was a six-time VSCA Vermont High School Coach of the Year and five-time Marble Valley League Coach of the Year.
